

One of the greatest things about producing the show Fusion at the Horizon Casino Resort, is the pleasure of getting close to the headliners. I lucked out with the cast of Fusion. Not only are these performers world-class and award-winning artists, they are world-class, award-winning people. Their chemistry both on and off-stage has won over the hearts of audiences and locals alike. The entire cast is from Los Angeles, where my co-producer, Tony Clark, auditioned and rehearsed them for this show. This has been their first Tahoe experience, and let me tell you, they fit in very well. All heath conscience, you can find the cast taking advantage of everything Tahoe has to offer. Needless to say, I didn't have to twist any of their arms to get them to extend their contracts once the Horizon extended the show for the Golden Cabaret. If you get a chance to see our performers off-stage in the wilds of Tahoe, go up to them and say hi. They are all super people.

He has appeared numerous times on national and international TV broadcasts like Fox's International Magic Awards and Japan's NHK Network. Alexander is making magic something cool, something hip, and something for the 21st century. In addition, Fusion features two co-headliners; the international award winning magician, Gregory Wilson, and from film and television, world-class juggler and comedian, Bryson Lang, plus the lovely Pamela.
